CERTIFICATION

I, on behalf of Chestnut Law Offices, P.A., general legal counsel for the Pueblo of Acoma, hereby certify that Title 4 – Children and Family Law of the Pueblo of Acoma Laws (hereinafter referred to as “Pueblo of Acoma Laws 2003 (11-2025 Replacement)”) was duly enacted by Tribal Council Resolution No. 2025-033 on November 7, 2025. Said Resolution directed the immediate enactment and public issuance of this replacement due to the nature and subject matter of the amendments contained therein. Accordingly, this replacement to Title 4 is effective as of November 7, 2025, the date of enactment by the Tribal Council.

A general certification of the Pueblo of Acoma Laws was previously issued on August 1, 2025, for the “2025 Edition,” which compiled and incorporated all amendments and additions enacted through December 31, 2024. Titles amended during that period included:

- Title 1 – Preliminary Matters, Chapter 13 – Acoma Health Board;
- Title 7 – Wildlife, Chapter 15 – Civil Remedies;
- Title 9 – Livestock and Grazing, Chapter 3 – Establishment of Livestock & Grazing Board and Chapter 9 – Branding, Identifying Marks and Registration of Livestock;
- Title 13 – Cultural Resources, Chapter 1 – Pueblo of Acoma Language Policy; and
- Title 21 – Education, Chapter 12 – Educators.

In addition, a certification was also issued on October 8, 2025, pursuant to the immediate enactment and public issuance of:

- Title 18 – Pueblo of Acoma Sex Offender Registry and Notification Law (09-2025 Replacement).

This current certification confirms that the Pueblo of Acoma Laws 2003, as amended and in effect as of November 7, 2025, are reflected in the 2025 Editions, the Title 18 09-2025 Replacement, and this Title 4 11-2025 Replacement except where superseded or modified by subsequent enactments.
